1. Agreed terms

1.1. These terms and conditions apply to all purchases of products and/or services by NTT under a Purchase Order.

1.2. All schedules form part of these terms and conditions. Any reference to these terms and conditions includes the schedules.

1.3. Any words following the expressions ‘including’, ‘include’, ‘in particular’, ‘for example’, or any similar expression, shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words, description, definition, phrase or expressions preceding them.

1.4. “Agreement” means the contract formed by the acceptance of the Purchase Order and which incorporates these terms and conditions.

1.5. “Products” shall mean Services, equipment or software or any other products as described in a Purchase Order.

1.6. “Purchase Order” shall mean NTT’s written instruction to supply the Product or Service incorporating these conditions.

1.7. “Services” shall mean the services to be provided by Supplier as described in a Purchase Order.

1.8. “Supplier” shall mean the person, firm or company who accepts the Purchase Order.

2. These conditions shall apply to and be incorporated in the Agreement and supersede and prevail over any inconsistent terms and conditions contained in or referred to in the Supplier’s quotation, acceptance, invoice, correspondence or elsewhere or implied by law, trade custom, practice or course of dealing.

3. The Purchase Order constitutes an offer by NTT to purchase the Product subject to these terms and conditions. Accordingly, only acceptance of the Purchase Order by the Supplier shall establish a contract for the sale and purchase of that Product on these conditions. Any counter-offer made by the Supplier to supply the Product on other conditions shall only be validly accepted if such acceptance is in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of NTT. No addition to, variation of, exclusion or attempted exclusion of the Purchase Order or these conditions or any of them shall be binding on NTT unless in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of NTT. The execution and/or acceptance of the Purchase Order by the Supplier or the Supplier’s execution, commencement of work or commencement of delivery pursuant to the Purchase Order constitutes acceptance of the Purchase Order on these conditions by the Supplier. Where the Purchase Order is for more than one item, it shall be regarded as a single contract for all Product supplied pursuant to that Purchase Order.

4. All prices shall be as stated in the Purchase Order, except that if the Supplier quotes or offers to a third party lower prices or better terms and conditions for Product of similar quality, quantity or description to the Product (or the items comprised in it), NTT Security shall be entitled to purchase the Product (or the relevant items comprised in it) on the same terms and conditions and shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of the difference in respect of all such Product supplied after whichever is the earlier of the first quotation or the first supply at the lower price or better terms (as the case may be). All prices are fixed and inclusive of import, delivery, packaging, packing, shipping, carriage, insurance and other charges and dues, and are not subject to adjustment save as specifically provided in these terms and conditions or the Purchase Order. NTT Security will pay only undisputed amounts that appear on the tax invoice to which such fees relate from the later of forty-five (45) days after (i) receipt of a valid tax invoice, or (ii) NTT Security’s acceptance of Products. Fees for renewing Services may increase only if NTT Security agrees in writing at the time of renewal. All prices shall be in the currency stated in the Purchase Order and exclude GST and any other applicable sales tax or value added tax.

5. The Supplier warrants and guarantees that all Products are and will: (i) be new and will conform with these terms and conditions and all manufacturer’s specifications; (ii) be free from defects in materials, workmanship and design; (iii) be free from liens, restrictions, reservations, security interests or encumbrances; (iv) be suitable for, and perform in accordance with, the particular purposes (a) for which they were purchased by NTT and (b) for which they were designed, manufactured or constructed; and (v) will not infringe any third party intellectual property rights. Supplier warrants and guarantees that all Services will be performed with reasonable skill and care, and to a standard that should reasonably be expected of a leading provider of the services in question. If Supplier does not promptly correct defects or replace non-conforming Products or Services after written notice to Supplier, NTT may make corrections or replace Products and Services and charge Supplier for the cost incurred.

6. The Supplier shall deliver the Product on the date specified in the Purchase Order or, if no such date is specified, within 28 days of the date of the Purchase Order. Time is of the essence as to the delivery of the Product under the Agreement and if the Supplier does not comply with its obligations in the preceding sentence, NTT may, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies that it may have:

- cancel the Purchase Order in whole or in part without incurring any liability to the Supplier;
- refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of items comprised in the Product which the Supplier attempts to make;
- purchase substitute items elsewhere; and/or
- hold the Supplier accountable for any loss and additional costs incurred.

The Product shall be properly packaged and secured in such manner as to enable it to reach its destination in good condition. No charge shall be made for wrapping, packing, cartons, boxes, crating or containers unless specified in the Purchase Order, and NTT shall not be responsible for returning any such materials.

7. The Products will be shipped carriage free to the place of delivery unless otherwise agreed in writing. Time of delivery shall be of the essence. Provided the Products have not left the Supplier’s premises, NTT Security may without penalty on five (5) days’ written notice: (a) cancel or delay the scheduled date for delivery of Product and/or performance of Services; (b) change the quantity of Products to be shipped, or scope of Services to be provided. No restocking fees or charges will apply.

8. The Product will be at the risk of the Supplier until acceptance by NTT Security at the place of delivery specified in the Purchase Order, or as otherwise specified by NTT Security. The Supplier must off-load hardware at its own risk and cost as directed by NTT Security.

9. Ownership of the Product will pass to NTT Security on completion of delivery (including off-loading) in accordance with the Purchase Order, except that if the Product is paid for before delivery ownership shall pass to NTT Security once payment has been made. The passing of ownership in the Product is without prejudice to any right of rejection to which NTT Security may be entitled under the Agreement or otherwise.

10. The Supplier will indemnify, defend and hold NTT Security and its respective officers, employees, agents and directors harmless from any and all claims, actions, suits, proceedings, costs, expenses, damages and liabilities, including reasonable legal fees arising out of, connected with or resulting from a claim based on the Products and/or Services; any act or omission by Supplier under this Agreement; or any claim of infringement, misappropriation, or violation of any third party patents, copyrights, trademarks or trade secret rights or other proprietary Supplier must promptly disclose and assign to NTT Security all intellectual property generated or developed under this Agreement, including but not limited to all documentation, software and other proprietary information, resulting from this Agreement, and any resulting patents (collectively “Supplier IP”). Supplier will provide reasonable assistance to NTT Security to secure intellectual property protection, including assistance in the preparation and filing of any patent applications, copyright registrations, and the execution of all applications, assignments or other instruments for perfection or protection of title.

12. For non-Supplier owned IP (including off-the-shelf software), Supplier grants to NTT a fully paid-up, worldwide, perpetual licence to install, execute, use, copy, test, display, perform and distribute such intellectual property for NTT’s business purposes subject to the terms of the manufacturer’s terms and conditions including the end-user licence agreement.

13. EXCEPT FOR UNDISPUTED FEES DUE TO SUPPLIER, NTT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO SUPPLIER FOR ANY LOST PROFITS OR INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE. NTT’S TOTAL LIABILITY UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT SET OUT IN THE RELEVANT PURCHASE ORDER OR OTHER ORDERING DOCUMENT UNDER WHICH THE CLAIM OR ALLEGED CLAIM ARISES.

14. NTT Security may terminate this Agreement or the provision of any Products or Services in whole or in part for any reason on ten (10) working days written notice, without liability (including termination fees) except for undisputed fees arising prior to the termination date. Supplier will promptly refund to NTT Security any prepaid fees (including prepaid recurring fees, on a pro-rata basis to the date of termination).

15. NTT Security may disclose to Supplier proprietary, confidential or trade secret information pertaining to its business, customers or partners (“Confidential Information”). Supplier shall not disclose such Confidential Information to any third party or use such Confidential Information except to perform its obligations under this Agreement and shall upon expiration or termination of this Agreement destroy any originals and copies of such Confidential Information other than one copy held for archive purposes. Any personal data as defined by the Data Protection Act 1998...
made available to Supplier by NTT Security shall be deemed Confidential Information.

17. NTT Security will have the right to receive on request a copy of insurance effected or maintained by Supplier under this Agreement prior to the delivery of Product. This insurance shall not be suspended, voided, cancelled, or be reduced in coverage or in limits except with 90 days’ written notice to NTT Security. For any claims, Supplier’s insurance will be primary, and NTT Security’s insurance will not contribute to it.

18. The parties hereto are independent contractors. There is no relationship of agency, partnership, joint venture, employment or franchise created between either party and its respective employees and the other party under this Agreement.

19. Supplier will not make this Agreement public or identify NTT Security or its customer as a client or use NTT Security’s name or trademarks (or any variation thereof), without NTT Security’s prior written consent in each case.

20. Supplier will comply at its own expense with all laws, orders, and regulations. While on the premises of NTT Security or in contact with NTT Security systems, Supplier will comply with all applicable NTT Security or its Affiliate’s rules, regulations and security policies.

21. NTT Security may assign this Agreement in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of Supplier, to any Affiliate or in connection with a merger or acquisition or sale of all or a portion of the assets of NTT Security. Supplier may not assign all or any part of this Agreement without the prior written consent of NTT Security.

The Supplier will indemnify and hold NTT, its directors, officers, employees, shareholders, and agents harmless from and against any and all fines, costs, judgements, damages and assessments, including all reasonable professionals’ fees and expenses incurred by NTT as a result of the Supplier’s breach of these terms.

29. A reference to a statute or statutory provision or policy is a reference to it as amended, extended or re-enacted from time to time. No change, amendment or modification of this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by authorized representatives of NTT and Supplier. Failure by NTT to insist upon strict performance by Supplier of any of its obligations under this Agreement will not waive any subsequent or other default or failure to perform by Supplier. NTT’s rights and remedies in law or equity are cumulative and may be exercised concurrently or separately. The invalidity, in whole or in part, of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity of any other provision.
